be manned by veterans. Loss of Galbreath and Antilla has caused Zupke the most worry. Neither measured up to the Big 10 tackle physical standard, yet neither was outplayed a single minute during the entire season.

Thus the tackles, where line strength must be concentrated, will be handled by green men. Outstanding candidates include Zupke's own nephew, Bob Zupke, Minneapolis; Bob Ester-gard, Elgin; Harry Lasater, Fairfield; Ed Barrow, Danville; Al Lundberg, Streator, and La-Rue Morris, LaOrange. Jack Berner, letter winner in 1935, may not be available because of an old injury.

Needs New Guard
A running mate for Kuhn at guard will be drafted from a group of last year's reserves. Dick Fay, Atwood, John Lippold, Aurora, and Charley Stoltz, Chicago, or from several sophomore candidates. Walt Geister, Elgin and Dick Schultz, of Beardstown, so far appeared the best of the green men.

If Wardley answers Zupke's forward passing question, the only thing his backfield needs is an offensive fullback. Theodore and Wilson are great defensive stars and can block well enough to hold up their end on everything but cracking the line. Both are built like halfbacks. Jack Broady, Grand Junction, Colo., is the most likely sophomore fullback.

The schedule: Sept. 26—DePaul at Illinois; Oct. 3—Washington U. at Illinois; Oct. 10—Southern California at Illinois; Oct. 17—Iowa at Iowa City; Oct. 24—Northwestern at Illinois (homecoming); Oct. 31—Michigan at Ann Arbor; Nov. 7—No game scheduled; Nov. 14—Ohio State at Illinois; Nov. 21—Chicago at Chicago.

Famous Play Comes to Mason

Federal theatre autumn season is off to a glorious start this week with the government's four show houses facing busy schedules. Outstanding on the Los Angeles theatrical horizon is the brilliant revival of "Madame X," beloved drama of mother love made famous by Sarah Bernhardt and since played by Pauline Frederick, Ruth Chatterton and other noted stars.

Theatergoers who have postponed seeing "The Black Crook," Federal theatre's colorful revival of the 1886 melodrama-musical, are warned that this popular song and dance hit is leaving the Mayan next Sunday night.

The Mayan remains dark Monday and Tuesday nights of the coming week, to allow for the extensive rehearsals of "John Henry," Frank B. Wells' dynamic legend of a mighty man, coming to the 11th and Hill showhouse on Wednesday night, September 30. "John Henry" is a powerful story of the old south.

Wednesday, September 30, also brings an important opening to the Federal Musart theatre, where "The Devil Passes" Benn W. Levy's subtle satire, continues until next Sunday night "The Warrior's Husband," a hilarious three act comedy by Julian Thompson, comes to the Musart September 30, and promises three acts of unrestrained fun.

"When Will He Die," three act Yiddish comedy by Charles Gottesfeld, will be staged at the Figueroa playhouse, 938 So. Figueroa, next Saturday and Sunday nights, September 26 and 27. A matinee will also be given on Sunday afternoon. "When Will He Die" is given in Jewish under the direction of Adolph Freeman.
